

Recent Changes to Presbytery of Wyoming Administrative Manual

Standing Rules:

2.011 Election of Commissioners

Each session in the presbytery shall be represented by one elected ruling elder commissioner. Sessions elect commissioners according to provisions of the Form of Government (G-3.0301). Presbytery urges sessions to select commissioners and alternate commissioners for an entire year, from January through December. Names and contact information for commissioners and alternates shall be submitted to the stated clerk.

2.017 Redress of Imbalance

When the number of teaching elders entitled to vote in presbytery is greater than the number of ruling elders so entitled, the clerk shall report this imbalance and shall invite sessions (in the order of the church's date of charter) to elect an additional ruling elder commissioner until the balance is restored. The additional ruling elder term shall be for one year only (January – December).

Policies & Procedures:

V • Churches & Church Property

5.01 Standards and Insurance Coverage

Each church within the bounds of the presbytery shall obtain property and liability insurance coverage to protect its facilities, program, staff, and elected and appointed

Each church may purchase insurance from the company of its choice, provided the above coverages are included.

Annually, on the policy renewal date, each church shall send a copy of its certificate of insurance, showing the level of coverages, to the presbytery office. The trustees shall review these certificates to assure compliance.

The trustees shall work with any church unable to comply with this policy, for whatever reason, and shall have authority to grant exceptions as necessary, provided that the trustees report their action to the next stated meeting of the presbytery.
