

Rev. Monica Hall

Interim General Presbyter

Rev. Monica Hall began her work as our Interim General Presbyter on August 22. Rev. Hall comes to us having recently finished up nearly a decade of service at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Ogden, Utah.

Prior to her time in Ogden, Rev. Hall pastored in Oklahoma. She is also a board certified chaplain. A native of Texas, Rev. Hall brings experience in both the Mountain West and rural Presbyterian settings.

Rev. Hall is trained in homiletical coaching and currently pursuing her DMin through Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. She enjoys connecting with pastors and congregations and listening to their stories. She carries a deep love for small church ministry and is a shepherd of people through and through. It is a joy to see the Holy Spirit at work in this presbytery calling us together with Rev. Hall at this time! We hope you'll extend that great Wyoming hospitality when you get the chance to meet her!

A special thank you to the Interim GP Search Committee for their hard work to bring Monica to Wyoming: Dave Blevins, Chair; Karl Heimbuck, Steve Niccolls, Trenda Weisshaar.
