

Elder Commissioner to Presbytery – 2023

Each church in the Presbytery has one Elder Commissioner to Presbytery. The person must be an ordained Ruling Elder, but does not need to be currently serving on Session. The person must be elected by Session. An alternate should also be elected in case the primary Commissioner is unable to attend. Please fill out the following information for 2023. This information is to help ensure our records are up to date, our balance of voting members is correct, and all voting members of the Presbytery receive all relevant information and the Presbytery meeting packets. If this information changes during the year (particularly email) please contact the Presbytery office or Stated Clerk.
