

Welcome to the Introduction for the 2024 Women's Retreat at beautiful Camp Story in Story, Wyoming. Sponsored by Presbyterian Women of the Wyoming Presbytery.

Welcome to the introduction for this year's Women's Retreat at beautiful Camp Story in Story, Wyoming! Located close to Sheridan, in northern Wyoming, this camp is in a forest of pines with a small creek winding through the middle of the camp. It includes a large lodge where we'll enjoy meals, music (including a karaoke night led by Kathy Lundberg) and fellowship; a chapel where we'll engage in our Bible study; and the cabins where you'll sleep. You'll bring your own bedding to sleep on bunkbeds, and you'll be able to get a lower bunk, unless you enjoy climbing a short ladder! Click here <https://www.campstory.org/rentals> and then click on the tour link to view the camp.

Our program this year will include a presentation about human trafficking by a representative from Uprising, an organization that exists to “empower communities, volunteers, and donors to confront human trafficking and exploitation through awareness, education, and outreach”. Click here to learn about Uprising. <https://uprisingwyo.org/> Our offering during worship will go to Uprising.

We'll engage in a Bible Study based on the bestselling book by Ann Voskamp titled One Thousand Gifts. <https://annvoskamp.com/onethousandgifts/> This will include topics such as “Attitude of Gratitude,” “All is Grace,” and “Trust: The Bridge to Joy”. Your leaders will be members of the Presbyterian Women Coordinating Team.

Our worship and communion will be led by the Rev. Beth Kelsey.

Please join us! The weekend will include study, reflection, fellowship, fun and good food! We'll begin on Friday, May 31, at 4pm, and end at lunch on Sunday, June 2. Bring your friends!

Registrations are due by May 15. Print the registration form, complete it and mail with your check for $175 made out to PW of Wyoming. Send them to Rhea Cooksey-Dixon, PO Box 455, Story WY 82842.
